COLUMBUS DAY PARADE EXCELLENT

Paris High School Stages An Excellent Historical Parade

WAS OF UNUSUAL INTEREST

In spite of delays and the chilly weather which prevailed Wednesday morning one of the most successful and most unusual parades ever given in the history of Paris, was staged by the pupils of the Paris City Schools in honor of the Columbus Day anniversary. The parade was in charge of Miss Reba Lockhart, Director of Department of History in the Paris High School, with the cooperation of the literary and historical clubs of the city. The parade formed at the P. H. S. and traversed the principal streets of the city, disbanding again at the school. Portions of Main street were slightly, owing to the street work on side streets interfering.

Two hundred and forty pupils of the P. H. S. represented the progress of history through the ages, emphasizing the effect of the discovery of the New World by Columbus. Father Time, impersonated by Reid Bishop, led the parade, followed by the band and the Grand Marshal impersonated by Robert Meglone. The floats and paraders came in the following order: Cave men; Orientals; Lalla Rhook; Solomon and His Wives; Darius, King of the Persians, preceded by royal riders; Greek goddesses and runners; Vestal Virgins, Emperor Tiberius, Romulus and Remus; Elaine, King Arthur; Abelard; Eloise; Joan of Arc; Cardinal of Rome; Columbus at the Court of Ferdinand and Isabella; The Santa Marie; Court of Henry VII; Queen Elizabeth and Courtiers; John Alden and Priscilla; Pocahontas; Colonial children; Birth of the Flag; Columbia girls; Doughboys; Irish Gentleman of the Old School, which closed the parade.

Three prizes were offered, five dollars for the best individual portrayal of a historical character, won by Paul Jones and Mary G. Williams, members of the Junior Class, offered by Mrs. E. F. Clay, the second, offered by Prof. Lee Kirkpatrick, for the best float, won by "The Birth of the Flag," pictured by Ruby Hall, Elizabeth Wheeler, Amanda Collins and Mary Francis Kiser. The third prize was awarded to the "Cave Men," for the most vigorous presentation. The judges were Mrs. Thos. H. Clay, Jr., Mrs. Allene Prichard, Mr. Clarence Collier Dawes and Rev. W. S. Cain.

Lack of space forbids mention of all the noteworthy features of the displays, all of which were excellent.

VISITORS ARE HIGHLY PLEASED WITH BLUEGRASS TRAIL

The Appalachia Journal, published at Knoxville, Tenn., had the following report from the delegates to the Dixie Highway Convention in Cincinnati, concerning the Blue Grass Trail:

"There is some road that is neither rough nor good between Mt. Vernon and Berea, and from there on into Lexington is good, and the newly specified second Dixie Highway link into Cincinnati, via Paris and Falmouth, is good practically all the way, and where not good is to be immediately improved.

"On the way to Cincinnati, all points along the Falmouth route were decorated for the occasion. Paris intended to have a reception, but as cars went stringing through, this was impossible. Falmouth was also alive to the occasion, distributing literature boosting their town. All in all, the event was a great success, especially in heralding to the world that the eastern link of the Dixie Highway is the best route for tourists going South to Florida this fall."

NOTES OF BASEBALLDOM

In spite of the chilly weather a large crowd gathered at the Second street ball park Tuesday afternoon to see the "Leans" and "Fats" give an exhibition of high-class baseball. And they saw it, all right, according to opinions expressed by many of the spectators after the game. The game was fast and furious, even for players who tipped the beam at something over the two hundred mark, and every play was closely contested. The game was not won until the last inning, when Matt Lair, of the "Leans," made a sensational finish at home plate with the winning run for the "Leans." The final score stood 25 to 24, being the highest score made this season on the local grounds. The batteries were: Peed, Santen and Douglas for the "Leans," Tate, Skillman and McCray for the "Fats." The entire proceeds were donated to the Massie Memorial Hospital fund. The game was featured by long distance hitting and frequent trips around the circuit by the players.

SYNOD CLOSES ITS SESSIONS

Interesting Three-Days Meeting Closed Last Night

MEMBERS TO VISIT XALAPA

The one hundred and twentieth annual session of the Synod of the Presbyterian Church of Kentucky, convened at the Presbyterian church in this city, at 7:30 o'clock, Tuesday night, with about one hundred and fifty delegates present. The large auditorium of the church was filled to overflowing with an interested audience. The initial session was called to order by the retiring Moderator, Rev. Thos. B. Talbott, formerly of Paris, now residing in Lexington. The invocation was delivered by Rev. Dr. E. M. Green, of Danville, the oldest living moderator and the oldest minister in the Synod in point of service.

The opening sermon was delivered by Rev. S. B. Lander, of Richmond, who took for his subject, "The Eagle's Nest." Following the sermon E. M. Dickson delivered the address of welcome on behalf of the city of Paris; Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the Paris Christian church, on behalf of the Ministers' Association of Paris, and M. Peale Collier, on behalf of the Paris Commercial Club. Moderator Talbott responded to the welcome address. A pleasing feature was the musical program, beginning with an organ prelude by Miss Elizabeth Crutcher, organist, and a select program by the church quartette, Mrs. Maude White, Fithian, Miss Flora Hill, Capt. Harbeson and Charles B. Mitchell.

The business part of the program was taken up at the close of the devotional exercises. Rev. G. L. Telford, of Richmond, was elected Moderator for the ensuing term. Rev. C. N. Howerton, of Catlettsburg, was elected reading clerk. Rev. I. C. Hunt, of Chattanooga, Tenn., former pastor of the church at Covington, presented the Moderator with a gavel cut from a rhododendron bush on Lookout Mountain.

Wednesday's sessions opened with the devotional exercises conducted by Rev. Cary R. Blain, of Paducah, followed by reading of the minutes; communication; announcement of standing committees; records of the different Presbyteries; report of the Commission on Education, which included discussion by Rev. W. A. Ganfield, of Danville, and others; report of the Committee on Synod's Home Missions; discussions of leave of absence; report of Committee on Leave of Absence, on Sunday School work; conference on Sunday School work, and addresses by Revs. Thos. B. Talbott, W. A. Hopkins and W. T. McElroy. The afternoon session was devoted to reports of different committees, an address by Rev. H. R. Murphy, vice-president of the C. E.; reading of the Assembly minutes. The evening session embraced a conference on Christian Education, with addresses by Revs. Henry V. Sweets, and John Vander Muhlen. The evening program was in charge of Rev. Dr. R. T. Gillispie.

Yesterday's program was as follows: 7:30 a. m.—Devotions, led by Dr. J. V. Logan; reading of minutes; reports of committees on orphanages, schools and colleges, narratives, publicity, reports of Trustees and Treasurer of the Synod. 11:00 a. m.—Sermon by Rev. Dr. D. Clay Lilly; Sacrament of the Lord's Supper; Recess; 1:30 p. m.—Conference on Laymen's Work, led by Mr. Henry R. Turner; reports, unfinished business; standing committees in order; fixing next place of meeting; new business. Recess. Last night brought to a close one of the most interesting meetings of the Synod in many years. The sermon for the evening service was delivered by Rev. Dr. R. L. Telford, of Richmond, a speaker of great power. A special musical program was rendered by the church choir.

At eleven o'clock the Synod's Communion Service was held. Dr. D. Clay Lilly will preach the sermon. A very impressive service was held.

Spanish II—(a) Continuation of study of rules of grammar; (b) Inflection of irregular and radical changing verbs; (c) Written and oral exercises in syntax; (d) Dictation and recasting; (e) Conversation in Spanish of daily life; (f) Translation of texts of standard Spanish authors—Wagner, Spanish Grammar, Cortina, "Twenty Lessons in Spoken Spanish." Selections from various poets, letters, newspapers for dictation, Alarcon, "El Capitán Verrenos" Larra, "Partie Tiempo."

Prof. Fahquar, of the University of Kentucky, will open a course in literature at the Paris High School to-morrow (Saturday) morning, at ten o'clock, which will continue until next June. The course will meet at the High School and is open to anyone prepared to take the work. If you are interested call the Paris High School office.

The following course will open in the laboratories and shop at the P. H. S. on Tuesday evening, October 18, at seven o'clock. All railroad shopmen are invited to come: 1. A study of the characteristic means of representations in machine drawing. 2. Orthographic projection. 3. Sections and their use in mechanical drawing. These three units will take about six weeks, four hours a week. The class will have to have some knowledge of drafting when they start, which will make it possible for them to get over the work faster than beginners would find possible.

ALLEGED 'SHINERS' HELD FOR A HEARING

B. McFeeney and Cray Wagoner, young white men arrested Monday by Sheriff W. G. McClintock and Deputy Sheriff Robt. M. Gilkey on a charge of operating an illicit liquor still, were brought before County Judge George Batterton, for a hearing.

Their bond were placed at $500 each. Failing to secure bondmen they were remanded to the county jail to await examining trial. The men when arrested, were carrying wood to a complete "still" on the Joe Redmon farm, near Paris, ready to convert four barrels of "mash" into moonshine. The furnace under the "still" had been installed in a vacant house and connected with a big iron kettle sunk in the ground some distance away. While the officers secured no liquor in the raid, the "still" and a large quantity of "mash" were brought to the Sheriff's office.

McFeena and Wagoner were brought into County Court, Wednesday and formally arraigned on the charge. After hearing the evidence Judge George Batterton held them in $500 bond each to appear before the grand jury at the November term of Bourbon Circuit Court.

FATAL ACCIDENT NEAR LAIR

Gasoline Motor Car Turns Over At Sharp Curve

ONE MAN DIES OF INJURIES

Daniel Boone Owens, twenty-eight, a resident of Manchester, Ky., died at the Massie Memorial Hospital, in this city, Wednesday afternoon from the effects of injuries received Wednesday morning on the Louisville & Nashville railroad, at a point near Lair, in Harrison county. S. H. Johnson, who was with him at the time sustained cuts, bruises and shock, and was sent to his home at Lair, after receiving treatment at the hospital.

Owens and Johnson were on a gasoline motor car belonging to the signal repair department of the L. & N., and driven by Chester Lee, of Paris, a member of the signal department. Mr. Lee escaped injury in the accident. Mr. Lee says the accident was clearly unavoidable. They were on their way to Cynthia on business when at a point near Lair at a sharp curve the machine, in some way, became unbalanced, throwing the men off, the car being derailed. When Owens fell the machine passed over his body and was derailed. The injured men were brought to Paris on a southbound L. & N. train which passed soon after the accident, and taken to the Massie Memorial Hospital, where an examination showed Owens' skull had been fractured. Owens and Johnson were railroad laborers and made their home with the former's brother, W. M. Owens, at Lair.

Owens' body was sent to his brother's home at Lair late Wednesday afternoon, and was sent yesterday to his old home in Manchester for burial. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Myrtle Gregory Owens, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Owens, one sister, Miss Ollie Owens, and eight brothers, all of Clay county.
